

La Paperie

Exquisite papers...Extraordinary Style...

This charming store, located in the Downtown Design District, is full of surprises. From stationery to journals as well as perfect gifts for the bride or mother-to-be, La Paperie is a unique addition to Savannah's shopping experiences. With a background in retail, owner Debbie Lewis has used her experiences to create a welcoming shop focused on diverse selections and carrying something for every customer. She has a niche for design and it clearly shows through in the layout of her store. From functional to fashionable, La Paperie carries items for every occasion. Some of her designer stationery collections include both pre-printed and custom invitations from Vera Wang, William Arthur, Crane, and Prentiss Douthit, among others. The Neah Bay Douglas collection features hand-pressed botanicals on handmade papers, as well as letterpress printing. The store's most recent addition in designer collections includes Kate Spade Stationery. For those wanting personalization, La Paperie carries numerous printable items that can be printed in the shop. For a custom embosser or stamp, Debbie is happy to place an order and can be shipped directly to you.

Stationery is never complete without the perfect writing utensil and La Paperie has the perfect one for you. Whether looking for a fountain pen or rollerball, Debbie carries name brands like Lamy, Taccia, and Retro 1951. In addition to the wonderful selection of writing utensils, the store also carries Moleskine and Filofax organizers to keep you on top of everything. If you are looking for a distinctive gift with a bit of history attached, look for Cartiera Amatruda Amalfi stationery, which originates from the Amatruda paper mill in Amalfi, Italy and dates back to 1380. Amatruda paper is made according to ancient artisan traditions and showcases its authenticity with a beautiful watermark on each piece of stationery.

Gift items within the store include Italian photo frames, Seda France candles, Tokyomilk soaps, candles and cards, and alphabet and motif seals, and sealing wax. For those looking for the perfect Savannah gift, I suggest one of La Paperie's wonderful travel journals, allowing you to create your own souvenir with your reflections of our beautiful city.
